Quest PharmaTech Announces Sale of Bioceltran Investment and Return of Photodynamic Therapy Technology License

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, September 28, 2022 Quest PharmaTech Inc. (TSX-V:QPT) (“Quest” or the “Company”) today announced the sale of its share ownership interest in Bioceltran Co., Ltd. (“Bioceltran”) to Dr. Sang Ho Jang, founder of Bioceltran, for sale proceeds of $300,000 and the termination and return of the Photodynamic Therapy (“PDT”) technology license. Bioceltran is a private, Korea based company developing skin penetrating active molecules for cosmetic and pharmaceutical use.

The Company will receive an upfront payment of $100,000 upon agreement execution and a second and final payment of $200,000 within 12 months. As part of the transaction, the PDT technology license agreement with Bioceltran for the SL017 and SL052 technologies will be terminated so that Quest has full control on the future development of the technology.

“We are pleased with this sale of our investment in shares of Bioceltran and the return of the PDT technology license to Quest for future development. Quest generated a profit from the sale of the Bioceltran shares and the return of the PDT technology will assist Quest to focus efforts on adding value to its product portfolio”, commented Dr. Madiyalakan, Quest’s CEO.
